About the Rework America Alliance

The Rework America Alliance is a nationwide partnership of civil rights groups, nonprofits, private sector employers, labor unions, educators, and others. Alliance partners are working together to get people without a college degree into better-paying jobs that provide opportunities for career growth. In particular, the Alliance is working to support Black and Latino workers who face some of the most challenging barriers to economic mobility.

What are Inclusive, Skills-Based Practices?

Rather than relying on education, credentials, past experience, and other proxies for ability, a skills-based strategy recognizes that there are many ways to acquire knowledge and ability. Skills-based practices help employers identify and articulate the skills needed in a role and build processes for assessing and validating those skills.

Implementing inclusive skills-based hiring practices can help employers reduce bias and increase diversity, identify and articulate the skills needed in a role, fill skill gaps, support career development, reduce turnover rates, and open the door to more skilled employees from various backgrounds and industries.

Research has shown that hiring based on skills is 5x more predictive of future performance than hiring for education and 2.5x more predictive than hiring for work experience.

What is Included in the Toolkit

This toolkit has customizable, ready-to-use resources to help you take a skills-based approach to sourcing and hiring talent.

- Skills-Based Job Posting: Customizable job postings highlighting role-specific skills with inclusive language. Designed to engage candidates and attract a diverse talent pool.
- Resume Screening Guide: A candidate selection rubric containing role-specific skills, focusing on the skills new hires need. Helps to remove bias in the screening process.
- Interview Guide and Evaluation Rubric: Questions specifically designed to assess skills, with a rubric for evaluating responses. Asking all candidates the same skills-based questions reduces bias and makes it easier to compare candidate responses.
- Interviewee Selection Tool: An interview question comparison guide enabling hiring teams to assess interviewee scores across skill areas. The tool focuses conversations on candidate skills and abilities.
- Onboarding Plan: A sample skills-based plan to get new hires up to speed.
- Sourcing Channels: Starter lists of job boards, career fairs, and other channels to diversify and improve candidate pools.

Focusing on Skills Helps Job Seekers and Employers

Where a pedigree-based approach tends to result in new hires with the same background and experiences as existing staff, a skills-based approach enables organizations to leverage a wider talent pool and build a more diverse and high-quality workforce.

This approach also enables workers to see how their experiences and skills could help them succeed

Skill Comparison Guide

Limiting your requirements to what is truly needed increases your chances of finding a candidate with the skills needed to get the job done.

Occupational vs. Foundational Skills

Occupational Skills

Skills are specific to an industry or job. These skills are the Occupational skills a person needs to perform narrowly defined tasks and duties.

Foundational Skills

Skills are professional knowledge and skills that are transferable from one job to another and across industries.

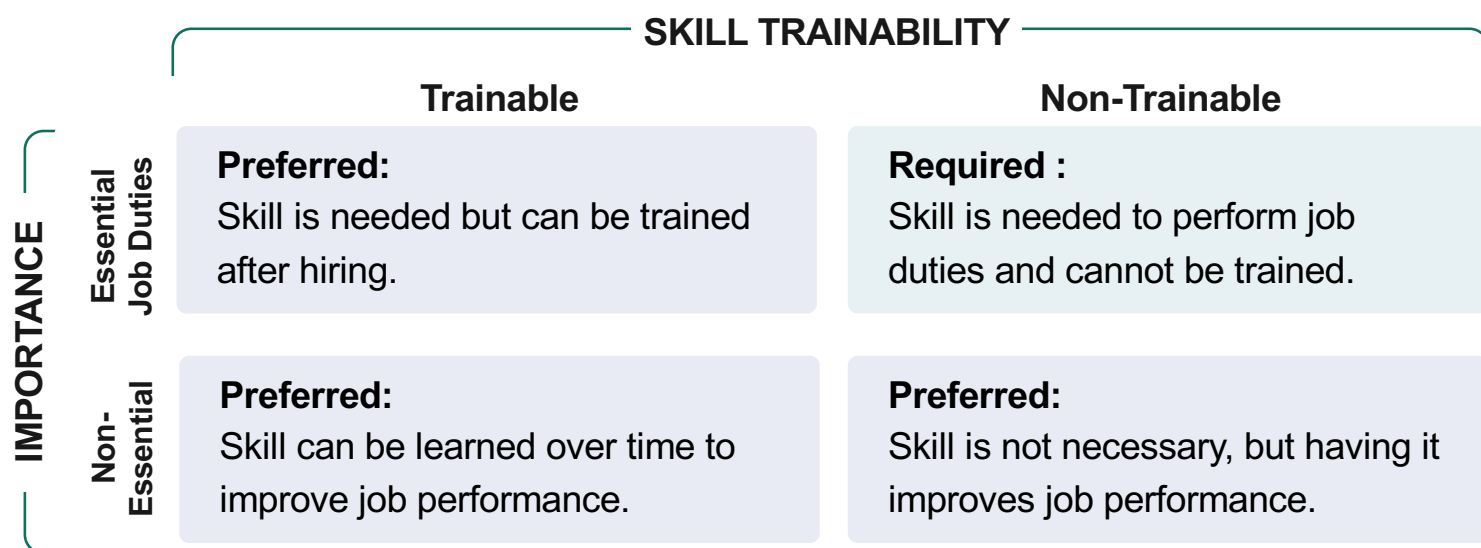

Required vs. Preferred Skills

Required Skills

Skills that are necessary to perform essential job duties at the specified level and there is no capacity to train; therefore, a candidate must have them on day one to complete job responsibilities.

Preferred Skills

Skills can be trained during onboarding and/or are used to perform non-essential job duties.

Expanding Sourcing Channels Enables You to Reach Untapped Pools of Talent

Traditional sourcing strategies focus on a narrow set of colleges, job boards, and peer companies. The result is a homogenous candidate pool, inflated recruiting budgets, and lower retention as companies compete over a small subset of the workforce. Expanding your sourcing channels enables you to reach untapped pools of talent, leading to better and more diverse hiring.

The information below provides a starter list of job boards, community organizations, and other tools to help reach and engage a more diverse candidate pool.

The following are examples of organizations available for partnership to help you diversify your talent pipeline and tips and suggestions for working with them.

Why Inclusive, Skills-Based Hiring Matters

Struggling to attract a diverse, job-ready candidate pool?

Your job posting could be turning top candidates away.

An inclusive, skills-based job posting removes bias-prone credential requirements that dissuade potential candidates – especially those from more marginalized communities – from applying.

It replaces them with descriptions of the responsibilities of the role and the skills needed to succeed, enabling candidates to visualize how their background and abilities might translate to the job. It also provides additional detail on the role, workplace culture, and compensation.

For additional job posting support visit: generator.skillful.com

The Skillful Job Posting Generator is a free online tool to help identify the skills and competencies required for a job and incorporates those skills into a simple job posting format.

Want to learn more about how to write an inclusive, skills-based job description?

📍 Check out the Job Description section of our Sourcing & Hiring Playbook.

Instructions for use:

- Add company-specific elements to the job posting, including a company overview and job details (e.g., salary, benefits, location).
- Review list of required and preferred skills and their definitions. Adjust as needed.
- Share final draft with a diverse set of employees to gather feedback and spot potential bias.
- Begin sourcing candidates. Add to your company website, distribute to partners, and post with a diverse set of sourcing channels.

Job Posting Template

Logistician

This toolkit model is an example of how to structure a skills-based job posting. Everything included in this toolkit can be tailored to each company's own needs.

Company Overview

<Please insert a paragraph talking about your company and what makes it unique. Include details that capture the core values, culture, and mission of your company so job seekers understand the environment they will be working in.>

Job Summary and Responsibilities

A logistician analyzes and coordinates an organization's supply chain, supporting the production process for a business or organization. They will use analytic skills to evaluate the supply chain and ensure it runs effectively. Their judgment and expertise help them make choices regarding acquisition, resource allocation and product distribution, as well as other stages that a company may integrate into their supply chain.

<Add any additional responsibilities or changes relevant to this role at your company.>

Example Activities

- Develop and maintain positive business relationships with a customer's key personnel involved in, or directly relevant to, logistics activity.
- Develop an understanding of customers' needs and take actions to ensure needs are met.
- Manage subcontractor activities, such as reviewing proposals, developing performance specifications, and serving as liaison between subcontractors and the organization.
- Develop proposals that include documentation for estimates.
- Review logistics performance with customers against targets, benchmarks, and service agreements.
- Direct availability and allocation of materials, supplies, and finished products.
- Explain proposed solutions to customers, management, or other parties through written proposals and oral presentations.
- Manage a product's life cycle from design to disposal.
- Develop business relationships with suppliers and clients.
- Oversee supply chain processes, such as purchases, inventory, warehouse spaces and transportation services used.
- Identify ways to improve logistical operations, to maximize value and minimize costs.
- Collect data on supply chain processes to find opportunities for improvement.
- Collaborate with other departments to improve logistics processes.
- Establish and update supply chain policies and processes.

Resume Screening Guide

Why Inclusive, Skills-Based Screening Matters

Don't overlook the best candidates.

Traditional screening approaches are time-consuming and bias-prone.

Many of your top candidates, especially those from diverse backgrounds and those without a 4-year college degree, never make it to the interview stage.

Inclusive, skills-based screening focuses on whether candidates have the skills necessary to do the job regardless of where those skills were acquired.

Want to learn more about taking a skills-based approach to screening candidates?

 Check out the Screening section of our Sourcing & Hiring Playbook.

Instructions for use:

- Ensure all required skills listed in your job posting are included in the left column of the guide.
- Share the resume screening guide with the team involved in resume reviews. To help protect against bias, where possible have multiple team members from different backgrounds and departments review resumes.
- Use the screening guide to inform which applicants advance to the next round of the hiring process. If using multiple reviewers, discuss any discrepancies between their evaluations.

Logistician

Instructions for use:

- Use a chart like the one below to track whether a resume contains evidence of required skills.
- Scan through each resume to determine whether the candidate demonstrates the skill, is missing the skill, or if it is unclear.
- Appropriately mark resumes against each skill, and use the chart to compare resumes and help select candidates to interview.
- Some skills are easier to identify in a resume than others. Focus on required skills that you can reasonably expect to identify in a resume.

Interview Guide & Evaluation Rubric

The interview process is one of the points in the recruiting process in which the greatest number of qualified, diverse candidates and candidates without a 4-year college degree are unintentionally screened out as interviewers select candidates most like themselves or those already in the organization.

This process prevents employers from hiring the best talent and adding diversity to the organization.

An inclusive, skills-based interview works to combat “like-me” bias by providing a structured, consistent approach that focuses on the skills new hires need to possess for the role and ensures all candidates are asked the same questions.

Scoring candidates on a consistent 1-5 scale for each skill further ensures interviews are focused on evaluating critical skills.

Want to learn more about taking a skills-based approach to interviewing candidates?

 Check out the Interview & Selection section of our Sourcing & Hiring Playbook.

Instructions for use:

- Review the list of required and preferred skills in your job posting. Ensure there is at least one interview question to evaluate each skill.
- Review the list of questions and evaluation rubric in the template. Adjust as necessary.
- Share the interview guide with a diverse set of employees for feedback to help spot bias.
- Ensure all candidates are asked the same questions to reduce bias and make it easier for interviewers to compare candidates. Complete the evaluation rubric during, or immediately following, the interview.

Instructions for use:

- During the final round interview, provide 30 minutes for candidates to complete the following assessment to evaluate skills required by a Logistician.
- This is an open-ended assessment and allows for evaluating skills that may be hard to assess by answers to interview questions.

SUMMARY OF THE PROBLEM:

- This assessment aims to evaluate your skills and competencies in one of the various areas crucial for success in this role.
- Please provide a detailed response to the following scenarios and questions based on your knowledge, experience, and problem-solving abilities.

Describe your experience in managing the end-to-end supply chain process.

- How do you ensure efficient coordination between suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, and customers?
- Provide an example of a successful supply chain optimization project you have led.

AS YOU CONSIDER THE ABOVE SITUATION, ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Evaluate SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT skill

Does the candidate demonstrate experience and expertise in managing the end-to-end supply chain process such as, procurement, production, inventory management, and distribution?

2. Evaluate LEADERSHIP skill

Does the candidate demonstrate the ability to ensure efficient coordination between suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, and customers?

3. Evaluate COMMUNICATION skill

Does the candidate demonstrate the ability to build and maintain relationships with various stakeholders in the supply chain, including suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, and customers?

4. Evaluate PROBLEM-SOLVING AND DECISION-MAKING skill

Does the candidate showcase their problem-solving and decision-making skills by describing how they address challenges and make strategic decisions in managing the supply chain process?

Interviewee Selection Tool

The Decision

After completing interviews and assessing each candidate's skills, how do you determine whom to hire?

Selection conversations are often prone to bias as interviewers describe “gut-feelings” or a level of comfort with candidates who are most similar to themselves.

The comparison tool introduces some structure and objectivity to the process, enabling hiring teams to compare interviewee scores across skill areas.

The tool helps keep selection conversations focused on candidate skills and abilities.

Want to learn more about taking a skills-based approach to interviewing candidates?

 Check out the Interview & Selection section of our Sourcing & Hiring Playbook.

Instructions for use:

- Ensure the skills in the selection tool match the ones outlined in the job posting and interview guide.
- Add the minimum required score for each skill to the first column. This score should be determined in advance and should reflect the team's capacity to train a new hire in that skill area.
- For each applicant, enter the score(s) they received from each interviewer for each skill.
- Use the notes column to capture additional feedback from interviewers.
- Reference the scores to evaluate and compare candidates and inform selection.

Onboarding Plan

Skills-Based Strategies Enable Customization and Training

While traditional onboarding plans are often one-size-fits-all initiatives that focus on compliance and HR, a skills-based strategy enables much more customization and training.

An effective skills-based hiring strategy provides you with a lot of information on the abilities a new hire currently possesses and needs to learn to perform in their new role.

This information enables you to tailor their onboarding plan to get them up to speed in areas identified as potential gaps.

Instructions for use:

- Ensure that all required and preferred skills from your job posting are included in the onboarding plan. The goal should be to get all new hires up to a baseline level of skill as quickly as possible to ensure they can effectively contribute.
- Review the onboarding plan with hiring managers. Adjust activities as needed based on training resources available and staff capacity. Make sure to build in training opportunities (informal on-the-job and/or structured training) for each skill.
- Work with managers to customize the onboarding plan to each new hire, referencing their interview and assessment evaluation forms to identify areas of relative weakness.
- Spread out training and onboarding activities to avoid overwhelming new hires with too many activities in the first day or week. Align training with job responsibilities to improve retention.
